

Future logistics in the Barents Region – Coordination Project for Lapland Accessibility

Jarkko Rantala

Project Manager, Logistics Expert, D.Sc. (Tech.) Regional Council of Lapland

Railway workshop, Kirkenes, 8.6.2017

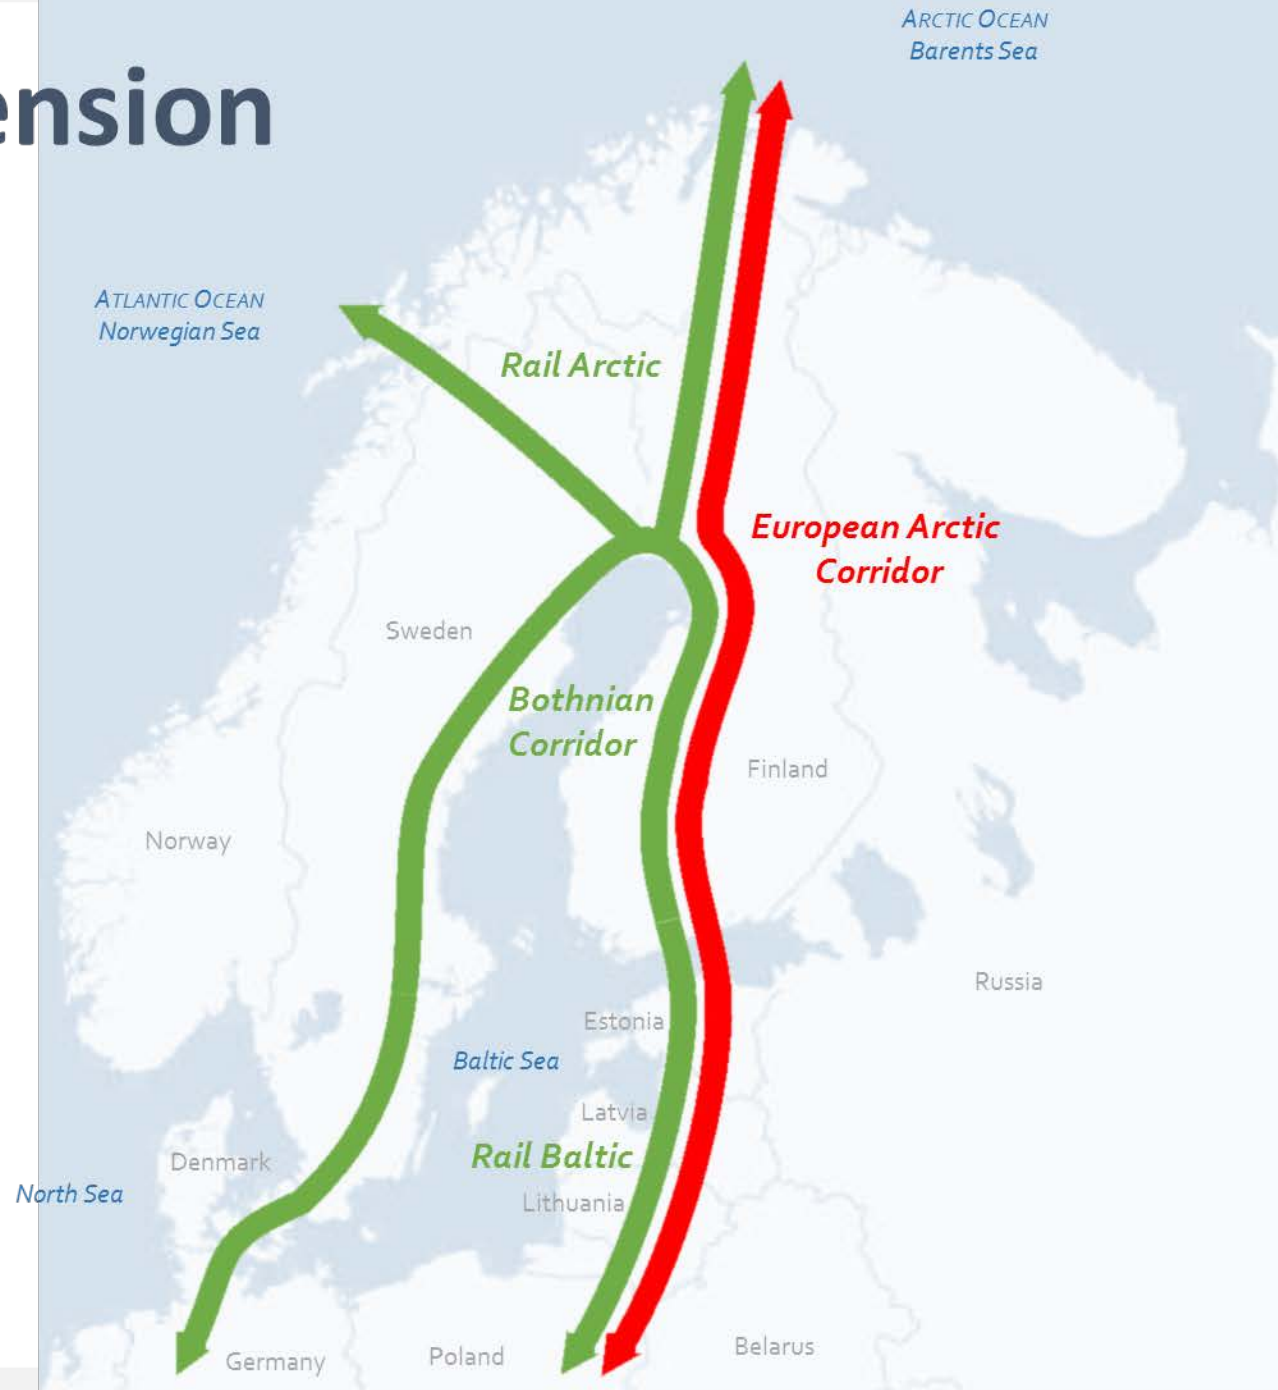

Kestävää kasvua ja työtä -ohjelma

Vipuvoimaa
EU:lta
2014–2020

TEN-T extension

- Supports development of the new European Arctic ecosystem and growth strategies
- Need for examination of the complete transport system

-ohjelma

Euroopan unioni
Euroopan aluekehitysrahasto

Lapland – European Logistics Arctic Node

Future logistics in the Barents Region

Future development, development paths

Development as today

according to economic situation reacting to existing needs

What it demands? How it affects?

Development leap foresight vision of long-term development strategies clear ambition logistics as a backbone in the development

Open Arctic: Location of Lapland as a neighbour of Norway, Sweden and Russia	Border crossing transport system and development of transport infrastructure as a network	Connecting Arctic Region to European markets through TEN-T corridors	Connecting to growing and potential transport flows and systems: Northern Sea Route, New Silk Road, North Atlantic, Rail Baltic
--	---	--	---

Main conclusions

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6
- 7

Project: targets, content and methodologies

Growth of business and competitiveness in the Arctic Region ensuring the success factors of existing businesses attracting new businesses sustainable industrial future investment potential strengthening the role of Lapland significance of logistics

Operational environment: markets, politics, trends global/regional/local markets responsibility geopolitics border crossing cooperation sustainability utilization of resources climate and environment intelligent solutions and operation models technological development

Business constitution

Transport flows

Traffic, transportation and logistics as a system accessibility of markets and regions strategies connections between logistics infrastructure and business constitution

Coordination project for Lapland accessibility 2015–2018 business ↔ accessibility ↔ transport connections

